

OWNER OF THE VICTOR FARM HOLDS HIS ANNUAL PICNIC

Last Saturday afternoon some 40 guests were invited to share the hospitality of Victor Lambertucci, owner of the famous Victor farm which was laid out on the desert and developed from an arid waste into one of the most fertile and prolific spots in the state. This was accomplished by deep mining and the beautiful place stands today as a gem of the desert in a drab arid setting. Eleven years ago the owner came to Tonopah gifted with the experience of farm life in Africa and Egypt and at once concluded that this camp furnished all the elements for establishing a home that would be one of the attractions of the southern country. The soil needed only the application of water and hard labor and the locator decided that the former supply would come as soon as the mines got down to depths as his experience had taught him that every desert is underlain with running streams if they are once tapped. Following his own counsel and in face of the railery of others Mr. Lambertucci proceeded to make his home the garden spot of Nye county. How he succeeded was left to the guests who answered his annual invitation to visit the ranch. A luncheon cooked in the choicest Italian style by Nazario Lambertucci and Eugene Tofti, was served in a little grove with light wines to flavor the repast and the health of the host was drunk with best wishes for the future of the ranch and its industrious owner. The citizens of Tonopah are indebted to the Victor farm for their supply of late and early vegetables that are far superior to the garden products of California.

FARM MORTGAGES OF ENLISTED MEN

(By Associated Press.)

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 10.—Legislation exempting soldiers and sailors in federal service from judgments based upon foreclosures will be one of many present day questions at the fourth annual convention of the Farm Mortgage Bankers' association here this week.

Such subjects as "The Future of the Farm Mortgage Business" and "Changes Ahead" are given prominence in the program and in connection with these it is expected that the war problems peculiar to the business will be discussed. "Farm mortgage banking is admittedly passing through a crucial period," says the official notice of the convention.

H. M. Hansen of Chicago, secretary of the association, has submitted to the membership a summary showing that seven out of 43 states have enacted laws granting exemptions from foreclosures to their citizens in the federal military forces. Five states failed to report as to whether such laws were on their statute books.

The report shows that Iowa has declared a moratorium for soldiers and sailors on all obligations based upon contracts to pay and that cases already instituted against them shall be continued until after military service is ended or the defendant is dead. Homesteads and property to the value of $10,000 are exempted from taxation.

SWEDISH TREACHERY

new enemy, whose activities and value in the prosecution of the war they have affected to despise, has been to expose a procedure which affords evidence against themselves and against a neutral government which it is charitable to regard as their dupe.

"The contents of the published telegrams cannot but show neutral governments the amount of faith they may put in German promises and German concessions. The accredited representative of the German empire at Buenos Aires, while actually enjoying the hospitality of the Argentine republic is seen advocating the deliberate murder of Argentine subjects on the high seas in order that the sinking of Argentine ships by German submarines should leave no trace which would make their crime known in Argentine and to make an enemy of that country.

"A further point of interest is the assurance apparently given by the Argentine government that Argentine ships will in future only clear as far as Las Palmas. In other words, the pointed immunity for Argentine ships, accorded with a show of magnanimity by the German government is a pure farce. In reality the immunities secured not by Germany refraining from sinking Argentine ships in the war zone, but by the Argentine government undertaking to arrange that no Argentine vessel should be found in that zone.

"It will be interesting to hear what Argentine public opinion will say when it knows the real nature of the 'diplomatic victory' which the Argentine government claims to have gained."

UNIFORM PRICE FOR A STANDARD LOAF

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A standard loaf at a uniform price everywhere was discussed today between the food administration and representatives of the master bakers' association.

When Hubby Fooled Her. Mrs. Scatterbrain was constantly bemoaning her lot. Her husband, who was entitled to place half the letters of the alphabet after his name, had the most treacherous memory in the world. He could remember nothing his wife told him, in spite of bits of string around his finger and knots in his handkerchief. Only once did Mr. Scatterbrain remember to do his wife's bidding.

Said a friend to Mrs. Scatterbrain: "I think you are getting as bad as your hubby. I got a note from you yesterday dated a whole week ahead."

"Heavens!" gasped Mrs. Scatterbrain, trembling with the shock. "My husband must have posted it the very day I gave it to him!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

WHITE CAPS CASE BEFORE WALSH

JUDGE AVERILL UNABLE TO PROCEED WITH HEARING SET FOR TODAY

The injunction suit of the White Caps vs. the Morning Glory Mining company which was set for hearing this morning was postponed owing to the fact that Judge Averill is suffering from an infection of one eye and could not occupy the bench. Judge Gibbons, representing the defendant company, expressed a willingness to have the case heard by Judge Emmet Walsh and asked him to come over from Goldfield. Plaintiff's attorneys were loth to begin the case before an outside judge when it was reasonably certain that the entire proceedings would have to come again before Judge Averill.

A FAITHFUL HORSE.

Paul Revere's Sturdy Steed Fairly Entitled to Fame.

Paul Revere's name was made immortal when he rode from Boston to Lexington and Concord warning the patriots along the way of the British approach, and his fame has been securely enshrined in the hearts of all Americans.

Historians have honored themselves in honoring him. Poets have found inspiration in praising him. He is an idol of childhood, an example in the prime of manhood and a solacing memory of old age.

How few characters loom up like great peaks above the mountain ranges of time!

And Paul Revere was one of these. He was one of the precious few great enough to grasp an opportunity to do an incalculable good to mankind. But while we give deserved glory to Paul Revere let us no longer forget that there was another hero in that wild midnight ride.

There was the horse. "Any other horse might have done as well," you think? Well, so might any other man have done as well perhaps. So might we flippantly disparage any hero.

But the fact remains that it was Paul Revere and Paul Revere's horse that did it. And the harder work fell on the horse. But for the true horse's faithfulness Paul Revere would have been a failure.—Christian Herald.

Cold Rice.

Cold rice should never be thrown away—even the smallest quantity can be used. It can be added to any soup. A good omelet can be made from a mixture of minced meat and rice added to the eggs. It can be used in a desert in the form of a plain rice pudding or a rice custard. Left over meat can be chopped and mixed with cold rice, then moistened with gravy and put in a baking dish. Cover with breadcrumbs and bake.

Beyond Repair.

"What happened to you down the road?" "I ruined a tire on a non-refillable bottle." "One of those bottles with a patent stopper?" "No; just the ordinary kind, broken into about fifty pieces."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A Long Reach.

"I thought I put that vase out of baby's reach." "Well, he yelled for it," explained dad. "What his arms won't reach his lungs will!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Time Killer.

"I've got an hour or two to kill. I wish I knew what to do." "Just go over and ask Brown how the new baby is getting along."

Hurt not others with that which pains yourself.

Out of His Class.

"I hear your new son-in-law has brain fever," said the curious man. "Brain fever, did you say?" chuckled the father-in-law. "The poor boob couldn't have any such ailment. Imagine a jellyfish having a backache."—Puck.

MOTHER BURRO WAITS BY DEAD BODY OF OFFSPRING

For the last 36 hours a poor mare burro has stood a little distance from the trail leading to the Belmont mine watching over a dead foal which was born Saturday night. The poor beast walks around the inanimate form wondering what is the matter and protecting it from prowling dogs.

Mrs. Ruby Dewar has returned from San Francisco with a new line of millinery and will have a department in The Klinger Store.—Adv.S. 1013.

So He Does.

"Old man Soggs says his boy Bill stops at the best hotels in New York." "He does. They're on the route of the laundry he drives a wagon for."—Browning's Magazine.

BUTLER THEATER

"A Son of the Hills," the Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature which will be shown at the Butler tonight, should prove an inspiration to every ambitious boy and girl in town. The play is based on a novel by Harriet Costock and conveys a message of optimism to all who see it.

Sandy Morley, portrayed by Antonio Moreno, is a boy poor in the world's goods, but wealthy in ambition and purpose. He is determined to obtain a college education as the stepping stone to success in life and his optimism finally wins out.

He is assisted in his desire by Cynthia Starr, portrayed by Belle Bruce and the romance of the two children is one of the prettiest stories that has been put on the screen in many a day. It is a coincidence that Cynthia, who has enjoyed the advantages that Sandy yearns for should be played by Miss Bruce, because the latter, who abandoned school teaching to go into motion pictures, teaches Sandy the fundamentals of learning and encourages him to seek greater heights.

In addition to the feature, the latest release of Hearst-Pathe News will be shown. Tomorrow, Jack Pickford in "The Dummy," one of the most thrilling dramas of the stage, and on Wednesday Little Viola Dana will again make her appearance.

When M. Lyoff saw Premier Kerenky Saturday, he presented Korniloff's demands. He told the premier that the conservatives who played the role of opposition at the recent Moscow conference, were supporting Korniloff. An official statement says General Tokomsky "also has proved a traitor," refusing to command the Russian army in succession to Korniloff.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The Russian embassy's officials believe the resignation of Gen. Korniloff was forced by elements of the council of workmen and soldiers' delegates opposed to enforcement of the death penalty for mutinous soldiers. They think the new commander, Klembovsky, will modify the death penalty orders.

Wonderful Soda-- That's what they all say and why wouldn't they say it? It certainly is the most wonderful soda ever made. The very best soda that can be produced today. That is the reason. First, purity of ingredients, then careful manipulation, then a sanitary fountain and the cleanest and nearest service. That's what makes it good. That should appeal to you, and induce you to meet and treat at our fountain, now and for the balance of the summer. Any flavor you want, all the old-timers, and the newest ones.
